Theme:

PEANUTS

by Charles
M.
Schulz

Cynosure chooses the characters from the comic strip "Peanuts," by Charles M. Schulz, as its theme for 1965. In this popular cartoon are to be found representatives of all types of people. As you look through the Cynosure, try to recognize whom the "Peanuts" people may represent. Mr. Schulz makes a point of mentioning the fact that his creations are remarkable in their resemblance to real people. Who knows, you may even recognize yourself in one of our "people."

To Mr. Schulz we owe a great debt for his having given Cynosure permission to use the "Peanuts" idea. The characters, of course, are the creations of Mr. Schulz alone. Our staff artists, Cathleen Cupec and Kathryn Guest, have worked hard to do justice to Mr. Schulz' work. Our thanks to him can be only in the form of a yearbook well-organized about its theme, "Peanuts."

Seniors Are:

Well, Lucy is a perfect Senior. She possesses that proper attitude, one of smug self-confidence and superiority with the knowledge of being the "top dog" in the school. And she does try to take advantage of her position in any way, as any Senior can testify.

In every Senior, as in Lucy, there must be something of the iconoclast in the willingness to challenge the established institutions and disillusion the "idealistic" underclassmen.

Of course, Lucy has her serious moments, during which important questions are asked — questions such as, "Who am I?" and "Where am I going?" Of such things, and many more, are Seniors made, and as Lucy would also say, "SENIORS ARE GREAT."

Senior Council — First row: J. Zaranka, President; D. Stracensky, Secretary; C. Eby, Treasurer; N. Petrin, Vice-President. Second row: D. Heidorn, T. Potashkin, P. Gindin, Z. Rudawsky, L. Wilson. Third row: L. Crown, I. Serden, G. Mazza, C. Carson, C. Stevens, D. Watkins. Fourth row: S. Fiorello, M. Mopsick, B. Abramowitz, R. Kovatch, T. Pawlowski.

3 SENIOR

We the Senior Class of 1965 residing at Linden High School in the city of Linden, county of Union, State of New Jersey, being of full age, sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make, publish and declare this as and for our First Will and Testament, in the following manner:

1. Al Kroboth bequeaths his crew cut to any underclassman who also needs one to get through low doors.
2. Dave Weitzman leaves his sneakers to anyone else who could wear them for a year without taking them off.
3. The "Physics All Stars" leave their charter and unique merit system to next year's class.
4. Kime Smith wills to any clever junior entering Mr. Miller's U. S. Style II class his book of Latin Verse.
5. Marlene Piskorik and Diane Zitnak bequeath to Mr. Dahlinger a bottle of ditto fluid and the key to the mimeograph machine.
6. Mrs. Ramage's Advanced Spanish class leaves her a year's subscription to La Luz and a bountiful supply of paper and ink.
7. Mr. Gaines' senior chemistry classes leave him his own chemistry room big enough for labs.
8. Mr. Haiko's second period class leave the "A's" they never got.
9. Betsy Greenberg and Suey Pytko leave Mr. Martino an extra heart to replace the one that fell to his stomach, Monday, second period, as the two "experts" sped down St. George's Ave.
10. Mike Hobor finally leaves Mr. Elowitz alone.
11. Mr. Jamison's sixth period class wills him a new set of musical chairs.
12. The senior officers of the Boosterettes — Judy Walck, Irene Serden, and May Lou Forster — leave three 1964 football programs, two stale candy bars, two cups of cold hot chocolate, and five raw hotdogs, to be sold by the Boosterettes of next year.
13. Jeff Engel leaves to the new seniors one-half of his ego. It should go around adequately.
14. Seniors of Mu Alpha Theta leave a supply of shaving cream and water guns for next year's picnic.
15. Second and fifth period chemistry classes take Mr. Coplan with them.
16. Third period gym class leaves Mrs. Pag. their chicken fat.
17. The Senior Class bequeaths to Miss Page's famous question "Is it not?" the answer "Perhaps."
18. April Kingsbury, Teresa Lelko, Genie Maltzer, and Christine Mrozek leave next year's seniors Mr. Volz's situation.
19. The fifth period Secretarial Practice class of Mrs. Perkins wills "dress-up" day to all her future Sec. Prac. Classes.
20. Greg Spitzfaden, Lou Paporozzi, and Frank Stropoli leave the Rolling Stones to anyone who digs real R & B (rhythm and blues).
21. Miss Cahill's fourth period history class wills her an extra key to her room and a dictionary.
22. Barbara Karaman leaves her "lone" gym sock to anyone next year who finds herself missing one.
23. Judi B., Ann B., Nancy B., and Barb C. bequeath their password "Spastic" to any un-coordinated juniors who fit the description.
24. Larry Wilfrid and Rick Wieser will a variety of genuine Pontiac parts to anyone who is man enough to use them.
25. The "Gang" — Jakucs, Kuzman, Magner, Mazza, Silver, Slachetka, Thorsen, Walck, Wilson, and Wolin — leaves Clod, Dagmar, The Wig, Beouwulf, Ag, Piggy, Yak, Why, Winda, and The Honey.
26. Pat Nycz leaves her umbrella to anyone who has gym on a rainy day.
27. Claudia Eby leaves a well-worn and over-used mop and pail to any custodian brave enough to clean the stage in front of 2000 students.

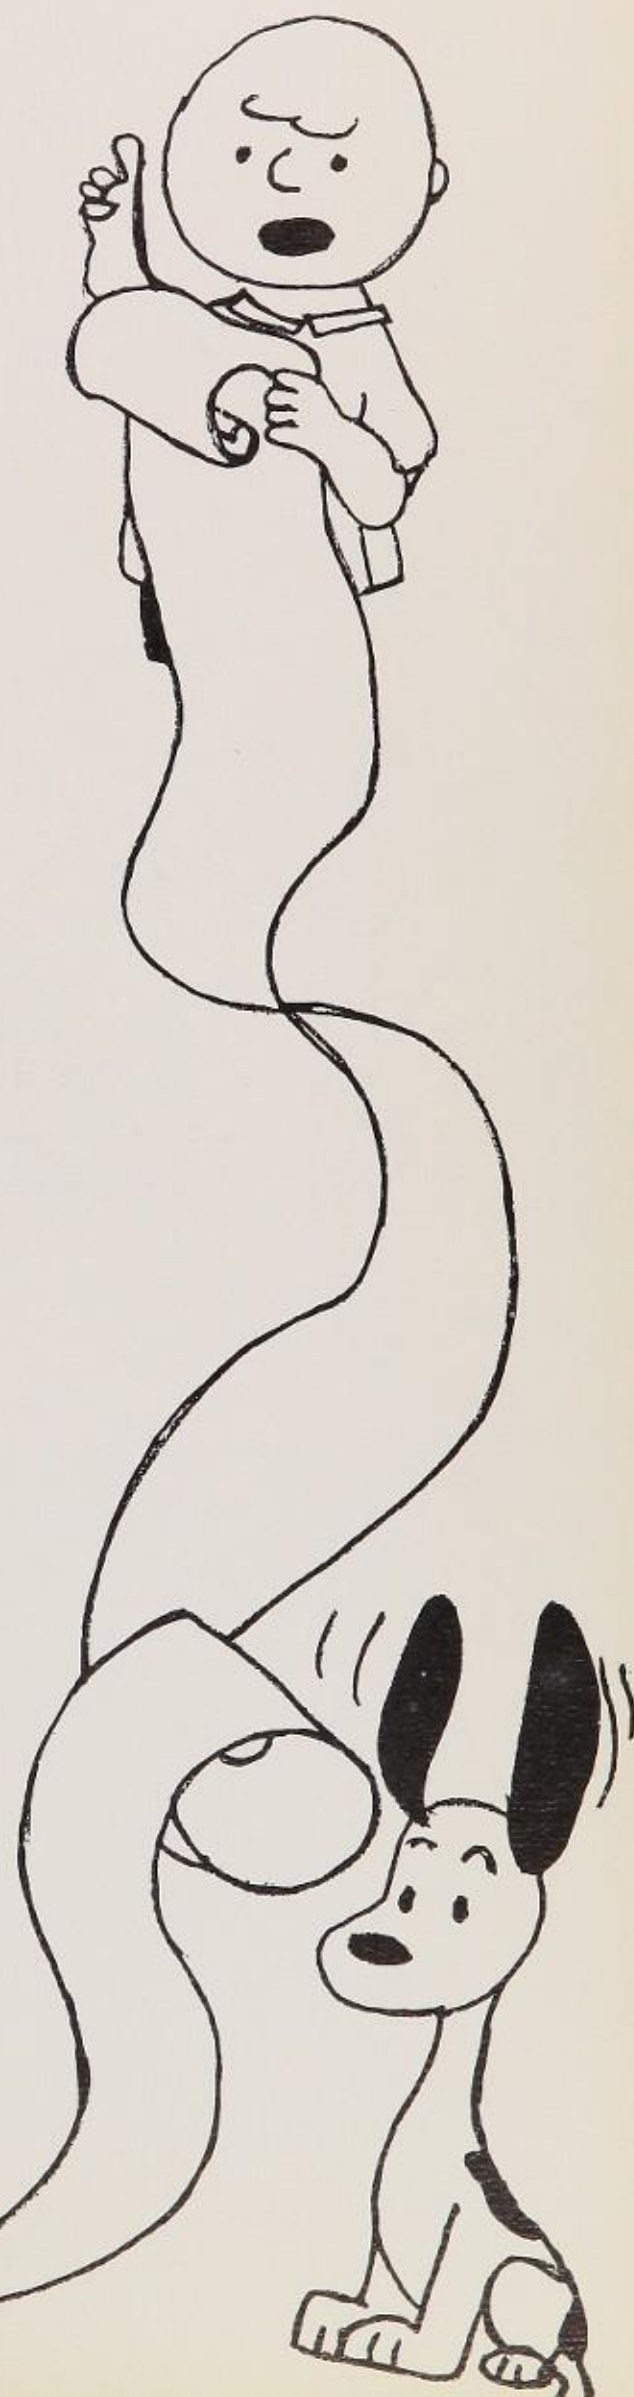

WILL

28. Diane Zitnak and Kathy Guest leave Mr. Coplan all the pieces of the graduated cylinders, test tubes, and thermometers they broke in their second period chemistry class.
29. Terry Tomsy leaves the East Coast surf along with his board and skis for anyone who could ride them.
30. Jane Weber and Barbara Shimko bequeath to next year's student secretary the ditto machine in the nurse's office.
31. Carrot, Pizza, Maddy, and Terbeck leave Mr. Martino and Mr. Villano peace and quiet in the coming year's first lunch.
32. Charley Addalia leaves Mike Patch his "Red Label."
33. Mr. Haiko's first period U. S. History II class wills him a copy of the book, How to Control a Mob, and a pamphlet entitled "I Don't Mean to be Facetious."
34. Mr. Barr's second period class leaves next year's prospective physicists the still unanswered question to the purpose of physics, "So What?"
35. Gil Turchin leaves Mr. Elowitz with the impression that he stole the answer book.
36. The Senior Class bequeaths to Mr. Villano a year's supply of cough drops and life savers, so that the next class will not go broke supplying him.
37. June Raymond wills Luddy Bartkus his mind.
38. Sylvan Zeidman leaves to Mr. DiMicele a free pass to see the next James Bond movie "Thunderball."
39. On the last day of school each senior leaves one lunch in his locker to sustain the "imaginary" mice and rats during the summer.
40. Third period history would like to leave Kime Smith to Mr. Miller to cheer him in the years ahead.
41. Ida "Aida" Daniels wills Mr. Baumans her sister, Leocadia, whose name is even harder to pronounce.
42. Mr. Hunt's second period class wills him one pair of B - - - K shoes and cuffless pants.
43. Miss O'Connor's former geometry class leaves to all upcoming math students a reminder that powerful bombs can fit in small packages.
44. The Senior Cheerleaders will next year's captains a well-deserved book of How to Maintain Your Cool from the Thanksgiving Day game.
45. Mike Mopsick leaves a copy of How to Produce Effective Animal Noises to anyone insane enough to use it.
46. Mr. Freeman's fourth period English class wills him a crate of oranges to use as he sees fit.
47. M. Rockoff, S. Fiorello, L. Barr, B. Wilsey, and B. Abramowitz, leave to Beno, our faithful custodian and Principal after 3:00, an honorary B.S. degree.
48. Miss Nolan's former practice class leaves to her our apologies for her bloody nose suffered during the tobogganing season.
49. Mr. Elowitz's advanced math IV class bequeaths to him a hammer and nails so that he can fasten everything down to avoid pilfering.
50. The senior boys leave to Mr. Blue the dream of a well-disciplined gym class.
51. Carol Gaboda leaves a deficit in the Student Council treasury.
52. Fourth lunch wishes they could leave Sal Cusumano to Mr. Villano as a body guard, but instead leaves him a course in self-defense.
53. I, Sam Harriat, bequeath a slightly used Beatle wig to Mr. H. Volz.
54. The Senior Class leaves to the class of 1966, 650 copies of the Alma Mater for the benefit of Mr. Jakucs.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hand and seal this day of June, 1965.

Kathleen O'Brien

Michael Mopsick

In Memoriam

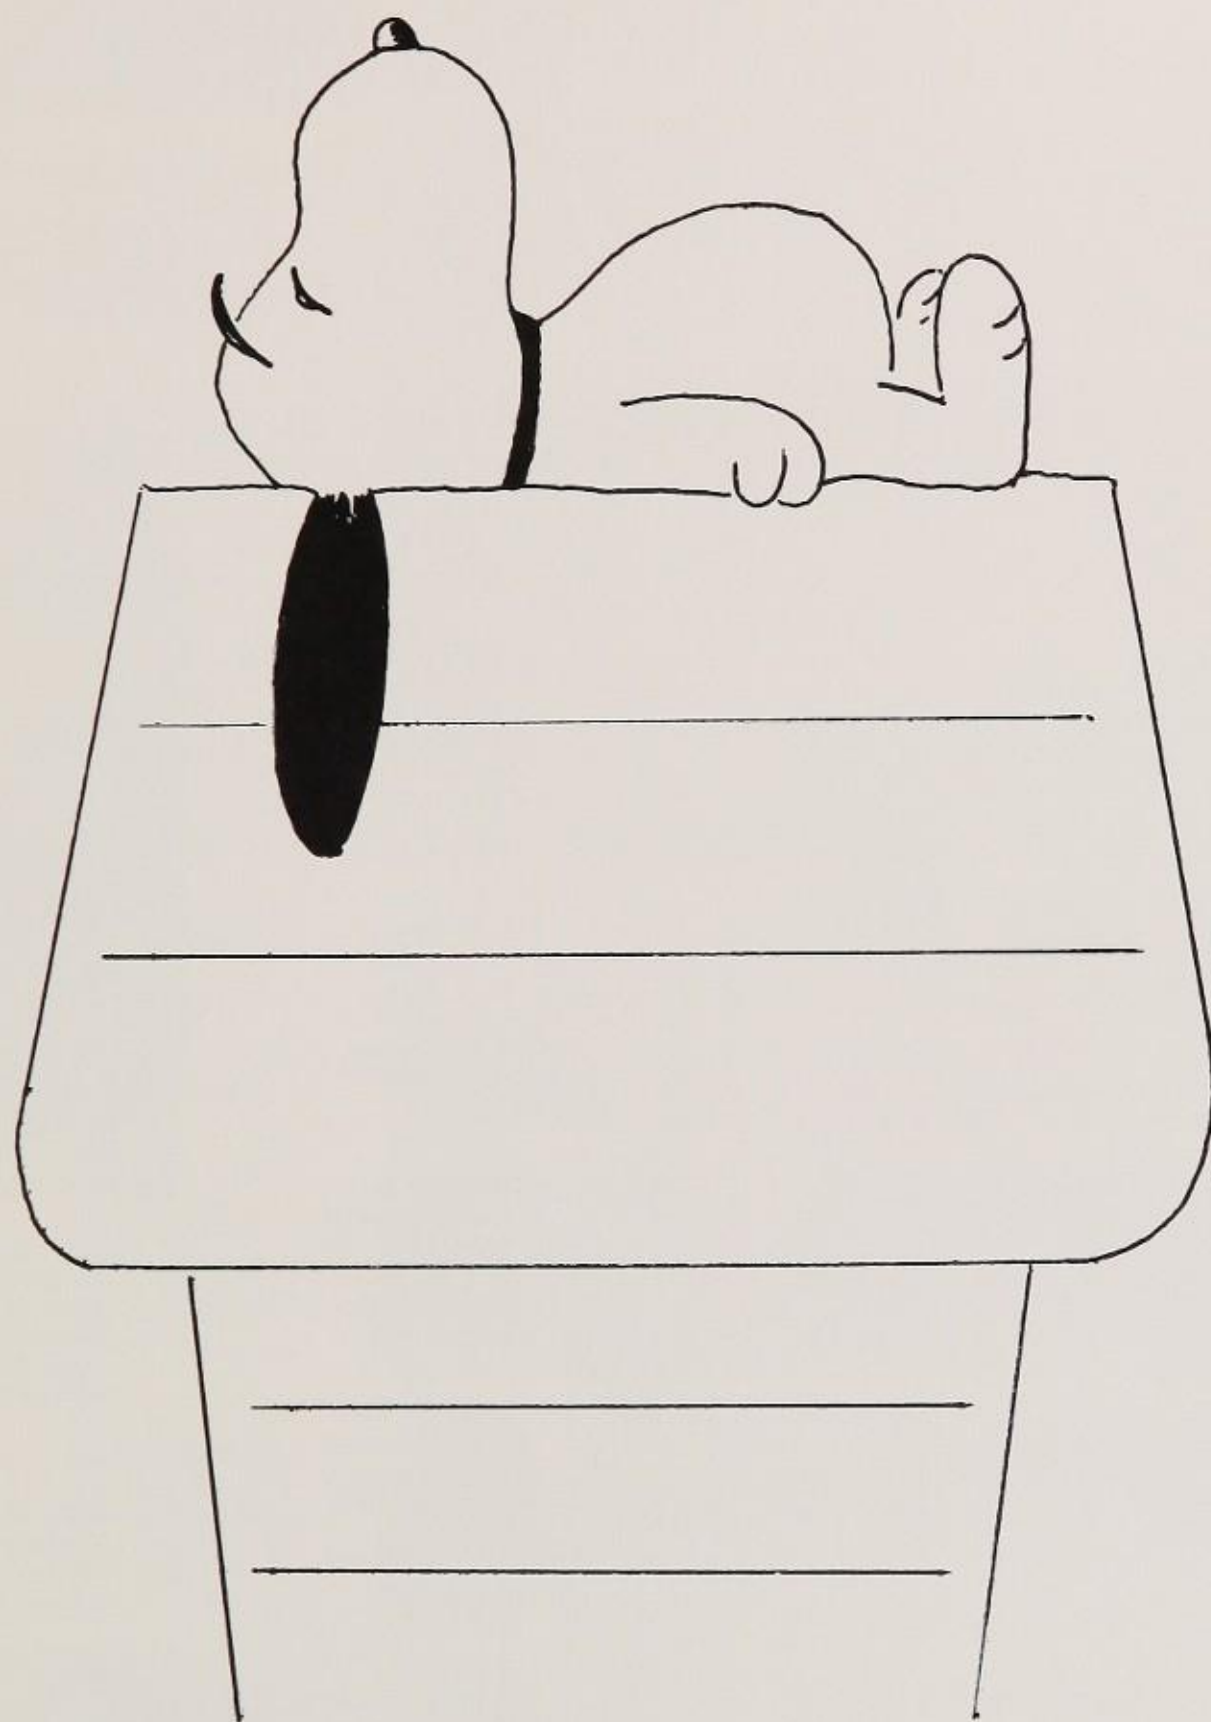

LOUIS
FUENTES

When the Class of 1965 is graduated this June, the ranks of the class will not be complete. Two of our classmates, Louis Fuentes and Ira Jackson, will leave gaps invisible to the eye, but nonetheless there. It is altogether proper that Cynosure recognize these young men who are gone but not forgotten.

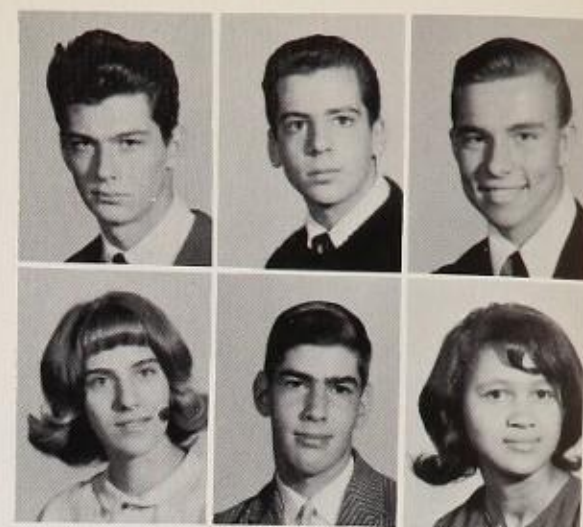

IRA JACKSON

J

A junior is the backbone of the school. He is confident that his class far surpasses the lackadaisical seniors. In every club he is vice-president; in every sport he does very well "for a junior." He is no longer young, he is not yet old. His ambitions and hopes begin to develop clearly only to be replaced each day by a new theory. He questions, he asserts. Still an underdog, he too waits for "next year."

A sophomore is a wide-eyed, eager, slightly frightened, and very much awed young person. His experience may be limited, but his dreams grow with the passing minutes. Too young for the activities open only to upperclassmen, he waits impatiently for the next year. In every club he is a junior member and in the mind of every senior practically nonexistent. But a sophomore is fortunate. The two years ahead are blank pages on which he is free to write what he chooses. He is a sophomore — but not for long.

Credit must be given to the senior homeroom teachers for the tasks they perform. To them is entrusted the job of containing the Senior Class spirit, which reaches its peak 'round about Graduation Day.

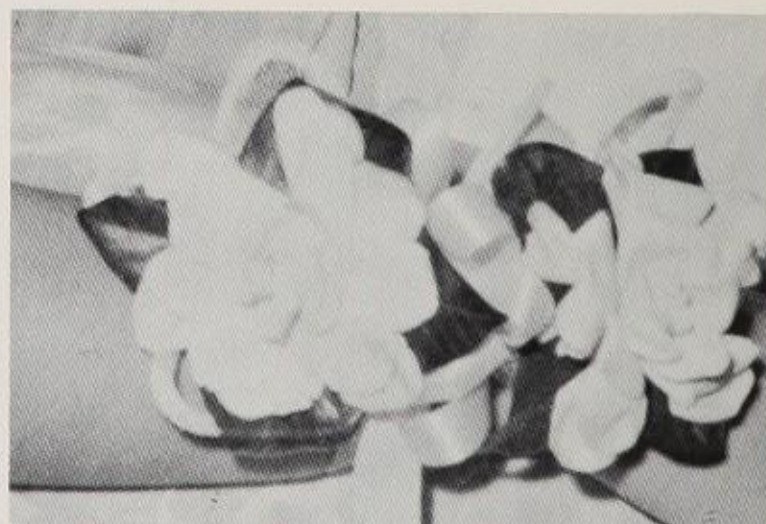

SENIOR

A wonderful evening begins.

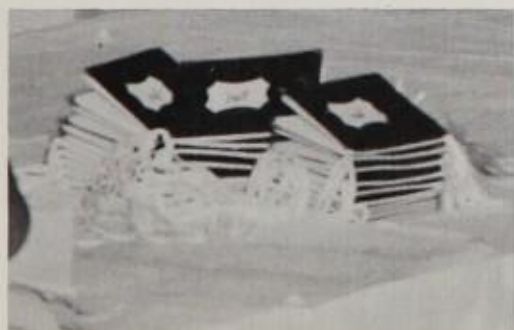

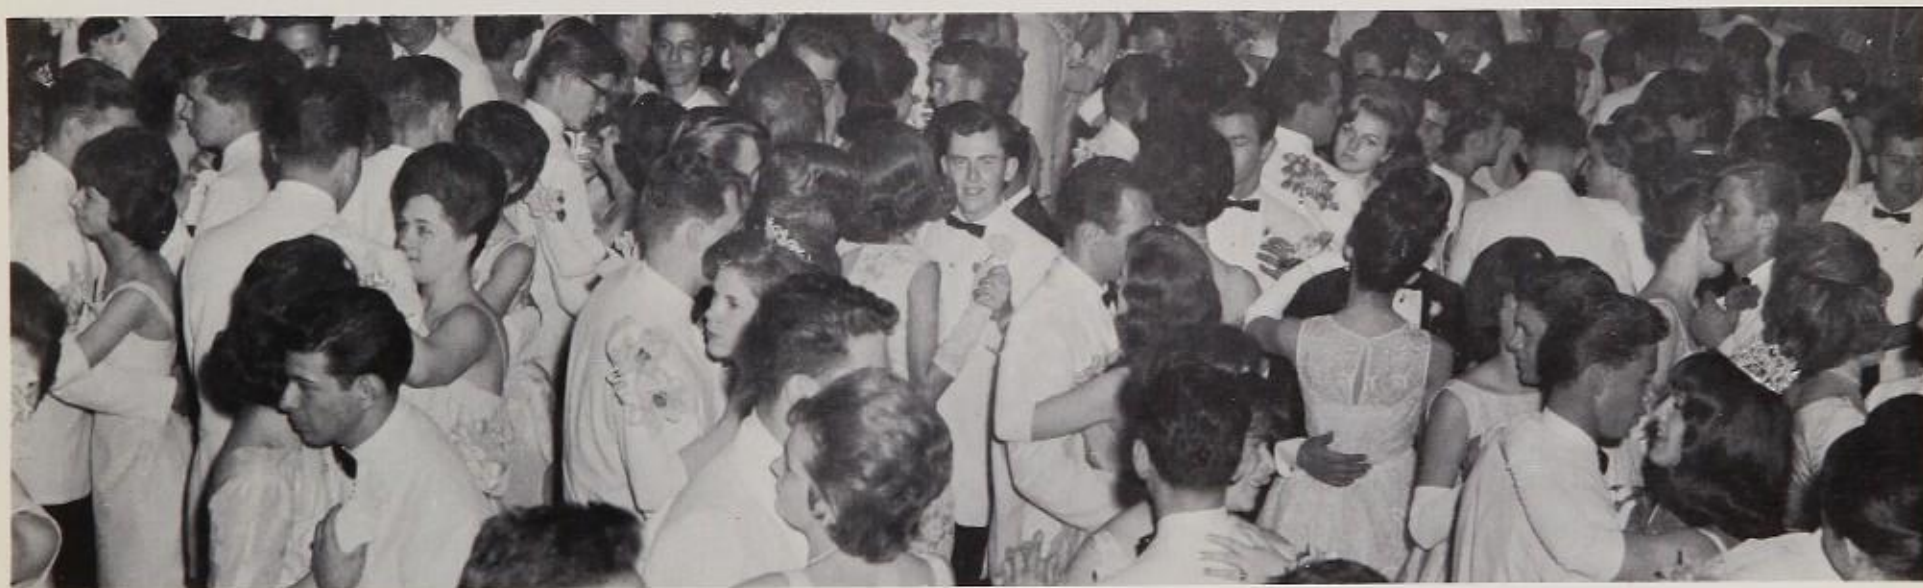

On May 8, 1964, happiness was a senior prom — the long awaited event of the last year in high school. The Military Park Hotel was the traditional setting for the gala affair. Our happy couples dined and danced into the early morning hours. Passing quickly, the night held a good time and wonderful memories for everyone.

PROM!

Sr. Class President Tom Martin and his date, Linda DeWitt.

All evening long, happy couples danced and dined and just had fun being with their best dates. When two a.m. arrived, everyone departed from the last big high-school social event, reluctantly, but with wonderful memories.

SENIOR BARN DANCE

GETTING READY

Judy Walck, Mary Lou Forster

The Senior Barn Dance provided a needed outlet for those tensions built up in seniors during their first two months as upperclassmen. The Senior Council labored diligently from September on Barn Dance plans. The Decoration, Ticket, and Refreshment Committees worked frantically toward the end of October. The Physical Education Department strove to coordinate six hundred pairs of left feet.

Then it was November second, and the seniors went to the first school affair for which they were allowed use of the family car. Girls in bluejeans and boys with open collars arranged themselves in geometric patterns that vaguely resembled squares as Tex and His Rhythm Ramblers played country and western rhythms.

After running itself ragged, the senior class collapsed in a semicircle around Alan Schechterman and guitar for some folk songs. A bunny-hop line, a few more choruses of the Virginia Reel, and all that was left of the Senior Barn Dance '65 was an exhausted clean-up crew.

HALLOWE'EN ROYALTY

Joseph Zaranka and Janet Tesche.

The royal couple following their coronation at the dance on Friday, October 30, 1964.

Michael Long and Zonia Rudowsky.

Ten members of the Senior class can now boast of royal lineage. Reigning supreme at this year's Halloween festivities were Queen Kathy Kimak and King Sal Cusumano. The annual dance was held on the Friday before the big Halloween-night parade. Everyone was proud of the royal couple and their attendants.

Martin Healey and Donna Heidorn.

Our king and queen presided over the parade on Halloween night.

Emanuel Riggi and Patricia Farawell.

This year's Junior Class decorated the school for the joyous season. They adorned our main hall with two beautiful Christmas trees and colorful ornaments and decorations. Many homerooms added to the holiday spirit, too, by decorating their doors and bulletin boards. The committee of the members of the Junior Council worked under the supervision of Mr. Gerald Colabelli.

We not only decorated, but also celebrated this joyous season we were entering. The Glee Club, Choir, Band, and Orchestra presented a yuletide program for everyone's enjoyment.

Christine Bianco, Robin Kornmeyer, Larry Czekay.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Frank Malle, Dean Barcaw, Kathy Fallon, Christine Bianco, Luddy Bartkus.

HAPPINESS IS

Play Reading Committee — First row: M. Kutyla, G. Mazza, N. Alderman, L. Paffrath, E. Svoboda, A. Derzock. Second row: M. Forster, I. Daniels, J. Thorsen, A. Schecterman, J. Weiss, L. Wilson, M. Hofmann, C. Cupec.

Stage Manager — Ellen Rubin.

These are some of the people who assisted in presenting the Senior Play. The students comprising the various committees worked incessantly to make the play a success. A warm expression of thanks is to be given these people. Without any one of their functions, our senior play, 1965, could not have become a reality.

Stage Crew — J. McCaffrey, R. Beckman, T. Solsky, B. Coppolaro, N. Budrecki.

Prompters — M. Kutyla, B. Greenberg, A. Derzock, E. Svoboda.

Publicity — B. Tomaszewski, M. Forster, L. Gikel, J. Jacobs, M. Hofmann, L. Goldner, B. Fronheiser, G. Wright.

HELPING EARNEST

Some members of the art club responsible for the settings — K. Guest, J. Mickelson, J. Levenson.

Marion Schwartz and Pam Ginden applying makeup to members of the cast.

E. Svoboda, J. Weiss, and A. M. Derzock work under Miss Georgiou on the properties committee.

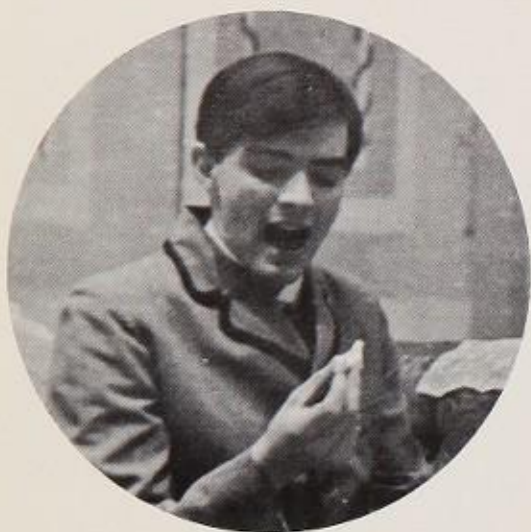

Miss Christine Kowalski, director of the play.

Lighting and Special Effects — J. McCaffrey, A. Schechterman, L. Goldner, L. Yekel, J. Wojcik, S. Zakreski.

The Cast:

SECURITY IS

Fred Vaina as Algernon Moncrieff

Karen Belinsky as Gwendoline Fairfax

Mike Mopsick as John Worthing

Claudia Eby as Lady Bracknell

Terry McArdle as Rev. Canon Chasuble

April Kingsbury as Cecily Cardew

Mike Scheininger as Merriman

Nancy Alderman as Miss Prism

Harold Zawadski as Lane

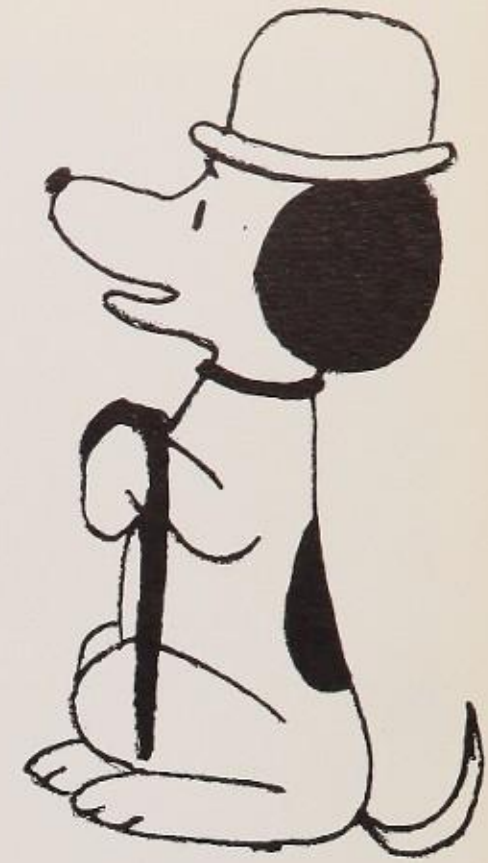

BEING EARNEST

Miss Prism casts a prudish glance at Rev. Chasuble.

"The Importance of Being Earnest", by Oscar Wilde, was presented by the senior class of 1965. The comedy, of subtle British humor, was received well by those who attended the play, given on the fifth and sixth days of March, 1965. The cast, working under the able direction of Miss Christine Kowalski, was to be commended on its performance.

Sincere gratitude is to be expressed to the other members of the faculty who headed the committees connected with the play: Mr. Cerillo for art; Mrs. Weitzman, makeup; Mr. Gulya, lighting; Mr. Richardson, printing; Mr. Young, set construction; Mr. Canavan, Mr. Burfield, Mr. Walters, tickets; Mr. Barr, usherettes; Mr. Baumans, Mrs. Engleman, Miss Georgiou, properties; and Mr. Czarneski, Mrs. Perkins, Mr. Squillace, Miss Greenhill, Miss Cahill, Mr. Villano, Mrs. Bierman, Mr. DiMichele, Miss Feibush, the House Committee.

Nobody knew the play was sponsored. Is Mike going into advertising?

"I love you?"

The sheltered Cecily Cardew finally meets the worldly Mr. Moncrieff.

JUNIOR

The Junior Prom is a stepping stone. It is a glorious ending of the school year for the Junior Class, but it is only one step on the staircase leading to the dreamed-of "Senior year."

The Junior Prom, which took place on April 24, 1964, was a memorable evening for all those who attended.

Students: Martha Jakub and Ted Reed. Teachers: Miss Smith, Dr. Barrett and Mrs. Barrett.

Hey!!!

Through the entrance, Gregg Butler and Gail Jacob arrive.

PROM

Clockwise from six o'clock: Charles Gallia, Roberta Bishop and Dave Williams, Frank Schurley, and Judy Gutkowski.

Junior Barn Dance at

The Junior Barn Dance was held on Friday evening, November 20, 1964, in the school gymnasium. The theme was "Life on a Ranch."

Shouts of approval could be heard on the days following the dance.

During the dance, the students were led by their class president, Robin Kornmeyer, to the cafeteria for delicious doughnuts and cider served by the refreshment committee.

The evening proved to be a successful one.

Student Council's main purpose is to act as a liaison between students and faculty. This year's council has been a particularly outstanding one. With the help of Mrs. Creitz, Student Council adviser, President Louis Barr and the other officers have been able to establish a Book Store, and sponsor a hootenanny (as well as raise money by selling book covers and decals), organize the Halloween pageant, and conduct elections. The student body is particularly obligated to the Council for the Senior-faculty game and the Pep Rallies which it sponsored. We students owe a large debt to this hard-working organization which has devoted itself so generously to making Linden High a better school.

Treasurer Carol Gaboda, Vice-President Craig Hagelin, President Louis Barr, Secretary Barbara Karaman discuss plans for a Student Council project.

Ted Rosenberg assists a student by explaining the steps to follow in voting.

Each year the Student Council holds elections for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Too soon the hectic petitioning, campaigning, and "buttonholing" of voters is completed. Election Day arrives, and the wishes of the electorate are manifested when the ballots are cast.

Voting procedure is explained before ballots are cast.

Registering to vote is an important step. Here students are assisted by Olga Samudovsky.

The final step is, of course, choosing candidates whom the voter feels are best qualified.

Secretarial and Clerical Appointments

Running off dittos, taking messages, typing tests (!!) — these and a thousand other tasks are the jobs of those business students who comprise the secretarial and clerical workers. These seniors are assigned to specific teachers as part of their in-school training for their future out-of-school positions. Their work is often arduous, usually time-consuming, but always rewarding.

Stage and Projection Crew

Among the numerous activities for which the projection crew is responsible is the displaying of movies to student assemblies as well as to individual classes and clubs. The boys are willing to render their time and effort at any time to serve our school.

The stage crew, which is associated with the projection Crew, under the able supervision of Mr. Gulya, is a necessary factor in all our productions in the auditorium. They operate the lights and curtains, set the scenery, and perform all other behind-the-scene duties.

Discontinued during the recent rebuilding program at L.H.S., weekly assemblies are again permanent fixtures held in the auditorium during an appropriately named "assembly period." They are planned and arranged by the Assembly Committee, a group of thirteen students headed by Claudia Eby, and advised by Miss Page. Interesting and varied, from advertising frauds to the Garden State Ballet, these productions featured such Linden High groups as the Drama Club and F.B.L.A.

Sporting a new face, our student library resumed operation this September. The new, larger library is manned by a large group of girls, whose jobs range wide in keeping the library running smoothly. The squad is under the supervision of Mrs. Searles and Miss Feeney.

...The Chronicle Records It

"Linden High makes history . . . the Chronicle records it." Under the direction of Mr. William Miller, this publication gears itself to the student interested in journalism, providing him with an excellent chance to learn the fundamentals of editing, writing, and the actual setting up of the issue.

Co-editors-in-chief Kathleen O'Brien and Michael Hobar, along with the entire staff, strive to report everything of interest. Columns on prominent and successful graduates and undergraduates as well as the fate of the Linden athletic teams are recorded.

CYNOSURE EDITORIAL

Cynosure is? Besides the bound pages you are now holding, Cynosure is eight o'clock morning meetings, galley sheets set in minute print, meeting deadlines, choosing a cover design, spelling two thousand names correctly, and, finally, the overwhelming feeling of satisfaction in completing the Herculean task.

This year's Cynosure staff enjoyed experimenting with a new idea in theme, in adopting Charlie Brown and his friends to help us chronicle the 1964-65 school year. The Brown family worked with our small staff as we spent our first full year in the new publications room, official Cynosure headquarters.

First row, left to right: Mr. Jamison, A. Retman, Librarian; N. Lemberg, President; K. Guest, Secretary. Second row: K. Smith, R. Becker, T. Holup, B. Young, A. Eiser, K. Rosenbaum, B. Abramowitz. Zitnak, Vice-President.

Ability to reason logically, to speak extemporaneously, and to acquire poise in public speaking are all goals of debating. This year's topic was, "Resolved: That nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization." Club members were immeasurably aided by Mr. Jamison, the club adviser. Inter-mural contests and conferences at Columbia University and N. Y. U. made for an exciting, successful year.

Happiness is not having to give the rebuttal.

Exchanging ideas are an important part of debating. Here president Norman Lemberg and secretary Kathy Guest discuss the current topic.

Once embroiled in a fascinating discussion, time flies and members often see late afternoon shadows playing on the walls before a meeting breaks up.

Ira Goldberg opens a topic for discussion; those listening are N. Rafelson, E. Rugg, and L. Lombardo.

The Sophomore Debate Club, which meets formally every Monday after school, is under the capable supervision of Mr. Jamison. This club gives each member an equal opportunity to voice his opinion on various subjects brought up for discussion. Not only do these people debate among themselves, but they are involved with groups in other schools. We can be sure that our "sophomore debaters" carry on the good name of Linden High, wherever they may go.

... Now let's see which team won!

National Honor Society

National Honor Society: a dream for many; an award for few. Below are those who were awarded.

To be selected for the National Honor Society, you must meet certain qualifications. The main one is scholastic ability. The others are leadership, service in school and personality. By looking at the members, one can see they have all met these qualifications.

For the seniors belonging to Mu Alpha Theta, the National Mathematical Honor Society, "Security is slide rule in hand." Under the supervision of Mrs. Goldberg, these students are given the chance to explore the many fields of mathematics in which they are interested. Each week members are enlightened with lectures given both by students and guest speakers. Occasionally, the group participates in a field trip to stimulate further their interest in math.

Well . . . would you?

FRENCH CLUB

Under the leadership of Mr. Baumans, Miss Georgiou, and the club's President Kathy Holup, The French Club members meet every second Tuesday. They are a fun-loving group, eager to learn more about France and its people.

SPANISH CLUB

Because of the large number of its members, the Spanish Club has been broken into Club I and II, meeting at different times during the month. These groups meet under the leadership of President Karen Belinsky, Mrs. Rocca, and Mrs. Vaimberg. Club members use their time in furthering their knowledge on the history of Spain and the Spanish way of life.

The Future Business Leaders of America is part of a national and state organization. Operating as a part of the school program, under the guidance of business teachers, school administrators, and businessmen, FBLA tries to create more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of business occupations, as well as providing young adults with educational, vocational, and leadership experiences.

During the school year FBLA has sponsored many activities. The members collected toys and stuffed animals and cleaned them for a foster children's home. Also, they have participated in our assemblies with dramatic presentations. Pictures from their play are presented here.

The Linden High Drama Club is one of our school's most active organizations. Members of a local chapter belonging to the National Thespian Society, these students learn fundamentals in acting, producing, and directing.

This year, the drama club members produced their own play entitled "Ladies of the Mop," which proved to be enjoyable for the Linden High Students.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Heumann, a group of twenty-five students who desire a career in nursing convene regularly. The girls are made aware of the needs of the nursing field and the opportunities that await them through guest speakers and carefully planned programming. With Mary McGrath as president, the organization has proved profitable and advantageous for all those "future nurses".

The future occupants of many of our own Linden High desks may presently be members of one of our most active groups — The Future Teachers of America. This large club explores the field of education as a vocation for interested students, under the leadership of Sandra Chernotsky and the supervision of Miss Greenhill. Although familiar with the role of the teacher since kindergarten, the girls have become acquainted with the work of education today.

Hobby Clubs

The radio club, under the direction of Mr. Barr, is for boys interested in the operation of a ham radio. Many of these boys have obtained their call letters, and others are working to receive theirs, also.

Our photography club helps give experience to boys interested in photographing and developing pictures. The group meets weekly under the supervision of Mr. Richardson.

Any student particularly interested in chemistry has a rare opportunity to experiment and to advance his knowledge in this fascinating field. Under the capable guidance of Mr. Salzer and Mr. Coplan, two clubs exist for the inspiration of chemistry fans. A junior club formally meets on Wednesdays during activity period, and a senior club meets on Tuesdays after school.

It is necessary for the members of this club to experience a slight taste of their own failures and successes. Chemistry can be defined as a long and high ladder, each advanced rung consisting of a much more complex problem, which can only be attained and attacked by one's own procedures of experimentation.

Among other important activities, the junior chemistry club has enjoyed itself in the process of reviewing for the Chemistry Achievement tests. The senior club has involved itself with qualitative analysis or the determination of elements or ingredients of which a substance is composed — MAY ALL YOUR SOLUTIONS COME OUT AS HAPPY ONES!!!

Mr. Salzer and other members of the chemistry club watch as H. Broisman titrates a solution of sulfuric acid.

Chromosome Club

The Chromosome Club, more commonly known as the Biology Club, is under the capable supervision of faculty member Mr. Hoffman. This club formally meets each first and third Wednesday of every month in room 201A, but as a passer-by on any other day, you will probably see many of the members working on various projects, selected by individual likes.

Each member is introduced to the diversified studies which are so essential to this far-reaching field. Some of the projects include studying moss and protozoa, raising of fruit flies, experimenting with rat metabolism, and investigating liemotology. This club has scheduled two trips for the near future — one to Merck's and another to the World's Fair.

To our talented Glee Club, happiness is singing. This love of singing encourages the girls to practice again and again until they sound "just right."

Under the direction of Mr. Mauger, the girls this year performed in the Christmas and Spring Programs, and distinguished themselves. The school is grateful to these untiring devotees to music who give so unsparingly of their time and energy to provide the students with truly enjoyable programs.

First-period Glee Club — First row: J. Williams, I. Hartz, C. Soban, A. Kozak, Mr. Mauger. Second row: M. Yaskowack, E. Stires, R. Hall, C. Wallace, C. Lauro. Third row: J. Whitley, C. Carson, P. Choir

Mr. Mauger conducts the Choir during its annual Christmas performance.

Soloist Paul Midura sings.

Linden High's Choir consists of a dedicated group of individuals who like to sing and are not afraid of work. And work they do — morning and after-school sessions are not unusual before a performance. The Choir stages three programs a year for the high school (pictured here is one such performance, the Christmas program); in addition, they appear at both junior high schools and at PTA meetings. Talent, practice, and encouragement by the Choir's director, Mr. Mauger, combine to produce a choir of which Linden High is proud!

The Linden High School Band added color and music to our football games this year. The band also took part in the annual Halloween Parade, and played in a special assembly program. Under the direction of Mr. William Ostrander, the band has performed well as a group. But there have also been several individuals who have excelled enough to make All-State Band: Louis Barr, Gil Turchin, L. Liebowitz and J. Roth.

Our band assembles.

Orchestra

What melodious sounds do we hear coming from the music room every Tuesday and Friday fifth period? It's our Linden High School orchestra hard at work. Under the direction of Mr. Both, our music-makers prepare for their performances such as the successful appearances at the Christmas program, the Senior play, and the Spring festival.

TERCENTENARY CONCERT

Under the direction of Mr. William Ostrander, the band performed marches, spirituals, and classical selections.

On Friday evening, May 15, 1964, the Linden High School orchestra, chorus, and band presented their annual spring program. In recognition of New Jersey's 300th anniversary, the theme was the Tercentenary.

Each department contributed selections from classics, spirituals, and famous Broadway shows. In addition, the band performed the "Linden Centennial March" by Mr. Warren Malpas, Supervisor of Music.

Mr. Walter Both conducted the Linden High School orchestra in pieces by Bizet, Corelli, Lebar, and selections from THE MUSIC MAN.

As the choir looked on, Mrs. Claire Sahler, vocal director, was presented with flowers by members of the school choral groups.

The voices of the boys' and girls' Glee Clubs combined in selections from OKLAHOMA.

Football is action

Culminating our gridiron efforts are touchdowns like this one against Woodbridge.

Our 4-4-1 record doesn't sound very impressive, but in its wake it left plenty of work, excited and hoarse spectators, and, more than once, the heartbreak of losing by a touchdown in the final seconds of the game.

This year Linden fans witnessed efforts on the part of Bobby Jones, who, not just one time, ran 90 yards to score a touchdown; Mike Long and Robin Kornmeyer who threw long passes; Nick Petrin and Sal Cusumano, who formed a brick-wall defense between the opponents and their goal . . . Yet, the combined effort of our team could not surpass that of Plainfield, and our most disheartening loss, that to our Thanksgiving Day rivals, Union.

Next year, though, we can anticipate a brighter season wrought with victory by team members Robin Kornmeyer, Ricky Caldwell, Rich Wavrek, Al Brown, Ron Holmes, and Pete Popyk forming the core of 1965's team.

Janet Tesche
Varsity Co-Captain

Our cheerleaders remain strangers to no one in Linden High School who has any sort of school spirit. These vivacious girls may be seen leading the students (and pep squad) at all basketball and football games, both home and away.

Throughout the year, the girls have proven their devotion to our athletic teams by inspiring both the players and the spectators.

Zonia Rudawsky and Janet Tesche are honored as the co-captains of the varsity cheerleaders with Kathy Fallon as the junior varsity captain.

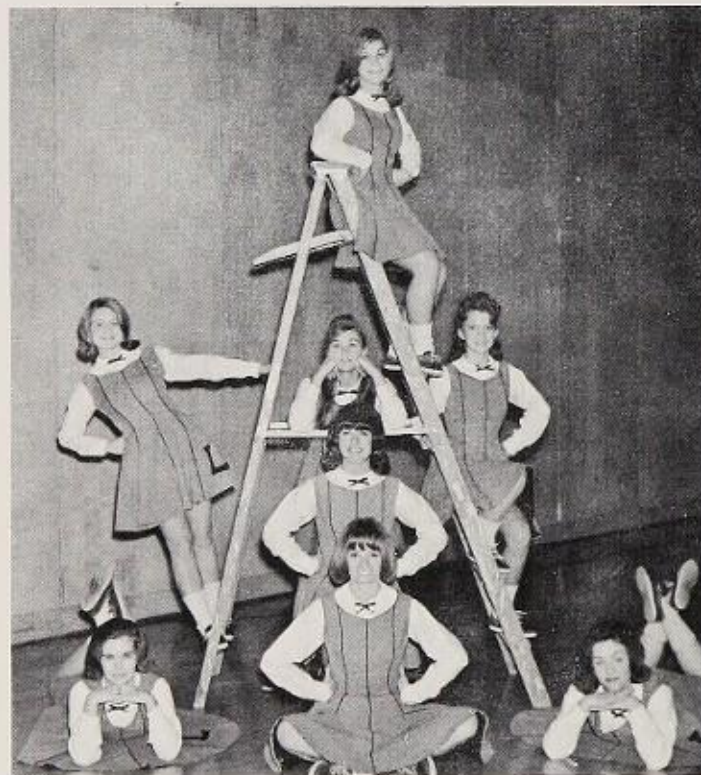

The girls, who are certainly a credit to Linden High, take great pride in representing our school.

Thinking back to our 1964 football games, a vivid picture of the Twirlers always comes to mind. Led by Barbara Swisstack and Gail Jacob, co-captains, the girls always seem to be in proper timing and step.

This year our drum majorette is Susanne Piatek, who, along with the Twirlers, brightened the football games and Linden parades.

Football Game

Mike Long makes a run for it.

On the morning of November 26, Linden and Union played their traditional Thanksgiving Day Football Game.

Throughout the entire game, The Tigers tried their best, some especially good efforts being shown by Bobby Jones, Mike Long, and Robin Kornmeyer.

The game ended with Union soundly defeating Linden 25-0. This was a disappointing ending to a fine season of Linden High Football. Our team has continually shown great skill in all games played throughout the season. They did it the hard way, since they tied unbeaten Westfield, beat Jeff, and defeated Asbury Park. Even though we lost this year — WAIT TILL NEXT YEAR!!!

If you are not directly involved in the unique sport of cross-country, the idea behind this marathon running does not mean anything extraordinary to you; it is only after you participate actively, that you discover the real meaning of the sport. Cross-country stands for long hours of practice, nonstop running of two-and-a-half miles in weather ranging from hot to bitter cold, and crossing the finish line with lungs bursting from pain and nobody cheering you but the coach. The cross-country runner does not go out for the glamor, as there is none; he goes out for the sport. He is a true athlete.

Worthy of special merit for their running were Joe Zaranka, captain of this year's team, and Bobby O'Connell. Also running well this year were Vince Pena and Henry Eska. Next year we can look forward to a team featuring Kevin Murphy, Joe Neri, Dave Newman, and George McGettigan.

On all the golf links of the Union County area, the Linden High School squad has gained the reputation of being a top team, capable of beating any team on any day. Last year's 8-5 record does not reveal that Linden ranked as the third-best team in the county.

Coach Joseph Gaines' team this year is formed from a nucleus of last year's varsity. Jerry Harris, Tom Engisch, Tom Przbylski, Mike Long, Lou Kornhauser and others will combine to have a successful season in 1965.

On Friday nights inside the gym, competition is keen and fiery, and excitement runs high. Under the leadership of coach St. Andrassy and captain Joe Zaranka, the Tigers fight fiercely and bitterly to win another victory.

This determination to win was vividly demonstrated to us as we fought our way to the state tournament, defeating Toms River in the quarter-finals by a score of 90 to 64 . . . only to be checked by undefeated Neptune 75 to 73. We finished the season with a record of fourteen wins and seven losses.

Providing an excellent postscript to our basketball season was the excellent performance of the J.V. team. Through the coaching of the capable coach Gaines and the spirit of the players, we concluded a successful season with a record of 21 won, 1 lost.

The single loss to Jefferson was avenged in the semi-finals of the Union County Junior Varsity Tournament when our J.V. team defeated Jeff's J.V. team by a whopping one-sided score of 72 to 36, and proceeded to go on from there to win the county championship. Many felt that if there had been a state tournament, we would have won that too!

If the performance of this year's J.V. team is an indication of next year's varsity team, we can look forward to one of the best teams Linden High has seen in a long time.

Baseball '64

As you open to this page of the Cynosure, you come across pictures of America's favorite game, Baseball. Linden High is proud to have a team that participates in this sport.

In going over the pictures, you see some of the best players the school has to offer. Intermingled in the group picture may be found some promising players that will lead the team to victory this spring, and others who have already been graduated and gone on to other things, and probably more baseball.

Let's hope that our team does well this season. Given the dedicated coaching of Mr. Catale and the usual diligence of our players, we have every confidence of success.

Track is a once-white uniform now coated with the deepest, lushest mud; a bass voice reeling off constructive criticisms—and praise; and the warm tumultuous locker room, before and after a meet. It is watching a star break a record, or being that star yourself. With these and few other variations, your recipe for springtime happiness comes out with that of some thirty-five boys who comprise the track squad.

Last season, the team was paced by the sterling performance of Stan Zacharczyk, who broke long-standing records in shotputting. Although their final tally was not exceptional, the boys ranked high in spirit. With this spirit and an experienced, young group, coached by Mr. William Martin, we look forward to next year when we will hear the names of Neri, Ostarticki, and the rest of the cast of this spring production.

Klutkowski and Caldwell run for Linden as Jones looks on!

Go Linden! Go Petrin!

Vincent Pena shoots over that-a-way.

Andy Wolman and Dave Newman flash ahead of our opposition.

Soccer 1964

Varsity — Front row, left to right: Mr. Catale, Coach; J. Toporoski, R. Kimak, W. Popiel, T. Kelly, C. Stalowski, S. Silberstang, N. Kaminski, B. Sosinski, H. Zawadsky, J. White. Back row: P. Christoff, A. Kroboth, D. Malo, Co-Captain; L. Stawicki, Co-Captain; J. Giermanski, R. Coleman, J. Peppard, B. Bennet, G. Vircik, D. Schacter, F. Clayton, A. Wilczak, W. Kielbasa, M. Vella, Manager.

Co-captains Dave Malo and Leon Stawicki.

Richard Kimak connects with a powerful boot.

Under the direction of Coach Frank Catale, regarded by his team as "one of the greatest soccer coaches in the state," our soccer team fought admirably against tremendous odds. Any number of injuries plus the lack of returning lettermen could have dealt crushing blows to the team, but the squad lost but five of its scheduled games. A victory over strong Jefferson was touted as one of the best performances of the season.

Stand-outs of the season were Leon Stawicki and Rich Kimak, who won berths on the First All-County and Second All-County teams respectively. Dave Malo received an honorable mention for the same team.
